

My Child's Strengths and Needs Worksheet

Use this worksheet to record your thoughts about your child. What works for my child:

Three things my child has recently learned or a new activity they enjoy:

Three activities that my child is currently working on:

Three things my child is having trouble with:

Three things I would like my child to learn within the next six months:

My Child's Strengths and Needs Worksheet

This worksheet covers the main areas of development that early intervention focuses on. It is also meant to help parents and caregivers collaborate with their child's team by preparing for meetings. Parents know their children best.

Skill Area	Strength	Needs or Concerns	What I hope for in 1 year (goals)	1-5 priority
Language Receptive: the ability to understand language Expressive: the ability to communicate
Self-Help such as dressing, toileting, eating
Motor Gross (large): ex. jumping, walking Fine (Small): ex. writing, picking up item
Social/emotional and behavioral
Play

My Child's Strengths and Needs Worksheet

Use this worksheet to record your thoughts about your child. What works for my child:

Activities my child likes best:

My child learns best when:

How my child's challenging behavior is best redirected:

Three things that motivate my child:

